DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-13, drawn to a tool control system, classified in class 700, subclass 297.
- II. Claims 14-20, drawn to method of providing a tool having a primary and secondary hammers, classified in class 173, subclass 1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the control system can be used to control computer and/or vehicle.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Mr. Nielsen Walter on 5/14/2004 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of group I, claims 1-13.

Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 14-20 withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Glaser et al. (US 3,393,755).

Glaser et al. discloses a tool control system comprising: a pneumatic source (14), a vacuum source (20), a control mechanism (fig.1) coupled to the pneumatic source (14), to a supply hose (48), and to a pilot hose (52, 80), a limit valve (84) coupled to the pilot hose portion (80), and a rotary reversing valve (72). The control mechanism provides vacuum to the supply hose when air within the pilot hose has greater than a predetermined pressure (col. 3, lines 2-12). Further, the control mechanism provides air pressure to the supply hose when air within the pilot hose has less than the predetermined pressure (col. 3, line 72).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Glaser et al. in view of Obergfell (US 3,850,359).

Glaser et al. lacks a tool comprising a first and a second actuation elements. However, Obergfell teaches a tool (20) comprising a first actuation element (144) and a second actuation element (34), which actuates when nosepiece is placed against a workpiece. In view of the teachings of Obergfell, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the tool of Glaser et al. with a first and a second actuation elements in order to effectively control the pressure and air supply to the tool.
